

Lightning Injury Treatment Literature

Source 1:

Auerbach's Wilderness Medicine

7th Edition, Volume 1

CHAPTER 5

Lightning-Related Injuries and Safety

by Mary Ann Cooper, Christopher J. Andrews, Ronald L. Holle, Ryan Blumenthal, and Norberto Navarrete Aldana

AWM7 ch.5 lightning.pdf - scroll down to start on Page 102

"RECOGNITION AND ACUTE TREATMENT OF LIGHTNING INJURIES"

This source is the best and most current resource for accurate treatment of lightning injury.

There are two ways to immediately access this information.

1. Download a PDF of this chapter now HERE. Please scroll down to start reading on either page 93 for Initial Presentation Models, or page 102 for Recognition and Acute Treatment of Lightning Injuries.

2. Explore important excerpts using our clickable links below. Links are text only excerpts of the book. For full text, references and illustrations please see the PDF.

For more long term reference, one might consider purchasing the two volume set here:

<https://www.amazon.com/Auerbachs-Wilderness-Medicine-2-Set/dp/0323359426>

Source 2:

Reducing Lightning Injuries Worldwide

by Mary Ann Cooper & Ronald L. Holle

Medical Focused Chapter:

Chapter 3 - Lightning Effects to the Body (Medical) w photo.docx

Section 3.6 Acute Treatment of Lightning Injuries

More Detailed Analysis of the overall phenomenon - the full book:

2019_Book_ReducingLightningInjuriesWorld.pdf

Source 1:

Auerbach's Wilderness Medicine

7th Edition, Volume 1

CHAPTER 5

Lightning-Related Injuries and Safety

AWM7 ch.5 lightning.pdf - scroll down to start on Page 102

"RECOGNITION AND ACUTE TREATMENT OF LIGHTNING INJURIES"